Easy to Do It.

"How are we going to do it-? It's a ginch. Say, we are not going to lose another game this year. Every one we have to play is on our own grounds and we'll gallop past Philadelphia and Cleveland just as though they were Cleveland just as though they were nailed to a post. All my men are in first-class shape again. My pitchers are fine and dandy, and with Cleveland ending the season away from their own grounds, I don't see where they figure to come in second. We'll get there, and fust write that down and pin it in your hat, and when the season is over remember Clark Griffith told you so.'

Mrs. C. T. Stout, the present holder of the title; Miss Griscom and the Boston representatives have arranged to make the Chicago trip, and the sentiment as regards the fact that the championship is to be held in Chicago may be accepted from Mrs. C. RUHLIN TO FIGHT MAN FROM NOME

BAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 17.-Gus Ruh. Mn and Joe Millette, the San Francisco beavywight who has just returned om Nome have been matched to fight before the San Francisco A. C. on Oct. 23.

Bibly Madden, Ruhlin's manager, who is now in this city, signed the articles for Ruhlin and has wired his man to come West at once.

WEINIG WANTS FITZ.

The latest man to fire a challenge s "Fitz" is "Al" Welnig, who has made sudden chilling of the body when overheated, a fit the startling proposition that he will of indigestion or exposure to the damp, Easterly twenty rounds. While Weinig has never been known to dodge any matches, and is fighting for what money there is it the game, the challenge may pass a one of those freak offers that puglist sometimes make. Such a fight woul be no more than a joke, but there in a chance that it will be accepted. Weinig's offer of a bet is not large enough to tempt Fitzsimmons.

FITZ IN SHAPE?

"Fitz" has a way of doing surprising things. Probably the reports from San Francisco that the old man could not stand the training work with Jeffries have nettled him, and he is going in to show them that he is still all right. He turned a trick like that when he suddenly dropped into the game in New York three years ago and cleaned up Sharkey and Ruhlin within ten days.
